CYBERVIEW Lodge Resort & Spa unveils its newly renovated coffee house, the Verandah Restaurant with its all new look and concept for a wonderful dining experience. This 100g, pan-Asian theme restaurant is destined to offer a truly unique dining adventure within its luxury resort. It boasts of high ceiling roof, wooden timber floorings, and clear glass windows, offering you a logical welcoming ambience further amplified by several contemporary touches. Ditching the good from the past is a scrumptious spread of high-tea buffet where the kids can have a splashing good time in the swimming pool. In addition the revamped restaurant holds a grand bronze chandelier, with floral accents, to brighten up the restaurant. The dark wood furnishing is one of the new features of the coffee house. The restaurant can accommodate up to 220 guests and an additional 40 more in its private dining room, which offers a striking view of the lush greens and natural style foliage. It is a perfect place for people who opt for private parties, functions, meetings and gatherings.

At the Verandah, you may savor a variety of cuisines at its action hot stations. With family coloured tiles, the action staff reflects the different types of cuisines. Executive Chef Abdul Rahman has created an extensive high tea spread every Sunday and public holidays from noon to 5pm. The Verandah is set to delight all with its bountiful buffet spread of favourites. From the buffet line, guests can look forward to a variety of appetizers like Masala Murgli, Fresh Green Curry (Mung) and many more. Favourite items amongst patrons include Curry Ayam, Curry Wag, Satay, (Steak), Pizza and many more. End your meal with a wide selection of desserts like Bread Butter Pudding, Kuli-kuli Melayu, French Pastry and do not miss the ice cream stall and the chocolate fountain. "We are delighted to promote our high-tea together with other activities since we have the facility at the resort." "Children will get bored easily especially after their meal and this will not allow the adults to stay longer to enjoy the buffet spread. To with the receipt of the restaurant, parents can take their time while waiting for their kids to have some fun in the pool" said Chef Abdul. Whether you are visiting the coffee house with your family, colleagues or friends, you will find the premier Verandah Restaurant to be an ideal and wonderful place to dine. The Hi-Tea buffet is priced at RM40++ for adult and RM20++ for child and is only available on Sundays and public holidays. Reservations are highly recommended.
